

Crider Baseball Field

Crider Field was named after Haywood Crider, a Chatham businessman and former mayor. The baseball diamond is a Little League style recreation facility with lights. There is a building housing a snack bar and restrooms. This park is maintained by the Chatham Youth League and available for public use when no games are scheduled. Check the schedule at <http://chathamyouthleague.com/>

Located on
Davis Road

