

Giles Gateway Park

Giles Gateway Park is named in honor of Edmund Giles, a former town manager for Chatham. It is a landscaped area with benches and interpretative signs that give the history of Chatham's first business corner.

Located on the corner of Main Street & Callands
Road
(Route 57)