

Harris Baseball Field

Harris Field was named after Julian Harris, a Chatham Businessman who donated the land. This is a lighted, double regulation baseball diamond facility with spectator accommodations. There is a building housing a snack bar and restrooms. This park is maintained by the Chatham Youth League and available for public use when no games are scheduled. Check the schedule at <http://chathamyouthleague.com/>

Located on
Davis Road