Union Memorial Garden

Union Memorial Garden was founded in 1870. The Union Memorial Garden is an historic African American Cemetery. The cemetery was passed on to the Town of Chatham to maintain between 1990 and 1992, however no plots are available. The Town of Chatham has few written records for Union Memorial Gardens and welcomes artifacts, history, and information pertaining to this historical cemetery.

425 S Main Street Chatham VA 24531